The Manamaler Store. Monumental

Merchandising

TWO short years have sufficed to show the shopping Public of New York and the vicinage that it cannot afford to be indifferent to any lines of goods that form a part of the Wanamaker system. The demonstration will continue for two important reasons:

First. Many people have yet to learn their true interests in relation to the Wanamaker Store. Second. The Wanamaker Store will be a better store with each passing

The rapid growth and exhibition now appearing daily of the splendid stocks assembled for Spring, 1899, create growing confidence that this year will mark a great increase in our sales. Experience tells us that appreciation is bestowed wherever it is due. The anticipations of this business are based upon a consciousness of increased merit in both merchandise and method.

HEARN

FRIDAY, AS USUAL, BARGAIN DAY,

Every week, from day to day, we look around to find those things that have not sold as rapidly as we would wish. . . . Such. while new and still in fashion, we reduce to price that never fails to sell. . . Fri. day is the day reduction first is made-Ofttimes in an hour, so low the price, we sell as many of a lot of goods as have been sold in days before
